

The experiential learning and training you will receive in your agency setting will allow you to explore and internalize these values as you prepare for a social work career. The practica are organized as follows: