

These lessons contain content that is not appropriate for students in the Intermediate Level.

These lessons contain some basic information about U.S. law. This information is not legal advice and is not

These lessons contain some basic information about U.S. law. This information is not legal advice and is not a replacement for legal advice from a trained attorney. All information is current as of the date it was produced (April 2016)

In your opinion, would having a caretaking plan make it easier for a parent to talk to his or her child about the possibility of being detained or deported? Why or why not?

END OF LESSON REFLECTIONS The teacher asks students at the end of each lesson what they learned and how they felt doing these activities. The teacher may want to take notes based on what students share to help in preparing the lesson for the following week.

Guiding questions for instructors to pose to students include the following:

- x What new ideas/content did you learn?
- x What new vocabulary did you learn?
- x What new rights did you learn?
- x What was difficult? What was easy?
- x How did you feel?
- x What would you change?
- x How would you use this information?
- x What situations can you think of when you may want to assert your rights?

These lessons contain some basic information about U.S. law. This information is not legal advice and is not a replacement for legal advice from a trained attorney. All information is current as of the date it was produced (April 2016).

These lessons contain some basic information about U.S. law. This information is not legal advice and is not a replacement for legal advice from a trained attorney. All information is current as of the date it was written.

These lessons contain some basic information about U.S. law. This information is not legal advice and is not a replacement for legal advice from a trained attorney. All information is current as of the date it was produced (April 2016).

These lessons contain some basic information about U.S. 110.20 60.72 444.C[0 9.201 1.9()10.8(F)3.444.7: