

*This lesson is based on the U.S. law Title 18
and the exception of the federal minimum age of 18 as applied (April 2016).*

the age of f

LESSON ACTIVITIES:

PART A) Talking About Types of School Discipline

Students will split up into three groups and explore one of three topics: detention, suspension, or expulsion. Complete the activity for your group. Afterwards, the class will come back together and discuss each kind of discipline as a whole group.

Group One:

The lesson is based on U.S. law. This is an activity for students to complete in their groups. The activity is based on the lesson plan from the 2016 AP course.

the grade

Group Two: Suspension

Read together: Suspension is when a student is not allowed to come to school for a time between one day and ten days.

This section is based on U.S. law. This is an exception to the general rule that all children must attend school (Arlow, 2016).

exception

This lesson is based on the U.S. history text and the experience of the students in the Alhambra

the student

